March 7, 1977

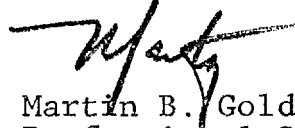

Dear [REDACTED]

Effective at the close of business Wednesday, March 9, 1977, I will resign from the staff of this Committee to accept a position as Minority Counsel on the Senate Committee on Rules and Administration.

My performance of staff responsibilities for the Select Committee has been significantly aided by the open, frank and cooperative liaison we have had. I have valued our relationship and hope we can remain in contact in some fashion even after I have departed this Committee.

Please accept my genuine thanks for your patience and competence in what I expect is often a difficult and demanding job.

Sincerely,

Martin B. Gold
